
Ohio State 2014 Summer Camp Guide

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

P-12 Initiative

A World of Opportunities

Ohio State has a longstanding tradition of offering Buckeyes of all ages and abilities vibrant summer experiences from June to August. The university offers fun and engaging activities including programs in academics, arts, language, literature, medicine, music, sports, and multi-cultural among others. We've covered it all, from indoor to outdoor activities. The Ohio State 2014 Summer Camp Guide will help you find the best type of residential or day camp for your child. We've also included programs that help pre-college students transition more smoothly to a university setting.

Camp Name: Young Writers Workshop (residential)

Program Description: The OSU Creative Writing Program awards up to 30 full scholarships to high school students in Columbus City Schools and charter schools in the City of Columbus to participate in a week-long residential summer workshop on campus. Students attend daily workshops and courses taught by OSU faculty, Master of Fine Arts graduate alumni, and current MFA graduate students. They also work on their own writing every day, network with visiting writers in various fields, attend readings by faculty and visitors, and participate in an open mic reading of their own work. The program concludes with a capstone event honoring the students and their families.

Grade Level(s): 10th - 11th

Exclusions or Prerequisites: Open to students interested in creative writing. Admission is by application and is competitive. By the March 3 deadline, students currently in 10th and 11th grade (rising juniors and seniors) attending public schools in the City of Columbus must submit their application to the program along with a writing sample and personal statement. Admission is based on an evaluation of the candidate's writing.

Registration begins: 3/3/2014

Program dates: 7/20/2014 - 7/25/2014

Fee(s): Contact the program for details

Camp Name: Zines! (day camp)

Program Description: Join us at Urban Arts Space to explore the unique, niche subculture of Zines! Zines are unique, small books filled with drawings, poems, short stories or other creative works of art. These personal memoirs have been used to share thoughts and ideas about the world around us as well as showcase artist abilities. During this five day workshop, we will learn the history of Zines as well as meet several members from our community of Columbus who will help us throughout this camp. We will share our finished products with our friends and family on the last day of camp in a Zine swap with other Columbus Zine enthusiasts!

Grade Level(s): 6th - 9th

Exclusions or Prerequisites: None

Registration begins: 4/1/2014

Program dates: 7/14/2014 - 7/18/2014

Fee(s): None
